Chapter Meetings

Meetings are held typically monthly with a varied schedule of breakfast and lunch meetings. Speakers and programs reflect current issues impacting the field of human resource management and provide an excellent opportunity to network with other human resource professionals, build alliances and learn from each other. The resource table, featured at each meeting, provides relevant information and resume postings. Visit our website at snhra.org for a calendar of our upcoming events.

Membership Directory

This directory provides members with the names, phone numbers and e-mail address of fellow members. This directory is available exclusively in our Members Only area.

Newsletter

The Newsletter "Resources" is delivered electronically to provide valuable information on SNHRA activities and announcements, continuing education and certification courses, current legislation, and industry trends.

Certification Review Course

This course assists Chapter members who wish to enhance their careers by certifying as a Professional in Human Resources (PHR) or a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR). Visit www.SNHRA.org for more information.

Member to Member

This program connects our members needing assistance in a specialty area with other members who provide valuable feedback and information or lend his or her expertise on an informal basis.

To apply, fill out the reverse side, or apply online at www.snhra.org.

WHAT IS SNHRA?

The Southern Nevada Human Resources Association (SNHRA) is the premier professional association for human resource professionals in the southern part of the region. SNHRA has over 600 members, representing more than 300 organizations. While affiliated with SHRM, we operate independently to provide a wide variety of professional development and networking opportunities for human resource professionals in the Las Vegas valley. The Chapter's diverse membership represents corporations and organizations of various sizes, as well as consultants. Our members range in experience from entry level to senior level and perform both specialist and generalist roles.

Objectives

1) To provide opportunities for persons engaged in human resource management to discuss their current challenges and to provide a medium for their mutual self-improvement.

2) To work for the betterment of human resource management practices including but not limited to recruitment, employment, compensation, training, labor relations, and personnel research which are mutually beneficial to the employee and the employer.

3) To raise standards of performance in all phases of human resource management and to aid in career guidance within the educational systems of the Las Vegas area.

National Affiliation Membership for SHRM, which is based in Alexandria, VA is separate from SNHRA, but is highly recommended. SHRM is the leading voice of the human resource profession, representing the interests of more than 250,000 professional and student members from around the world. Visit their site at www.shrm.org.
