“Thank You!” from Cynthia Adams, President of SNVSHRM

Words cannot adequately express how appreciative the Las Vegas conference co-chairs are for the stellar show of volunteerism from Team Leads and Volunteers for SHRM '21. I saw the true meaning of “servant leadership” from those who stepped up and stepped into their roles (and sometimes outside of their roles). The SHRM staff was equally supportive, accommodating, and available to our team. Thank you!!!

Meet Your Board

Name: Greg Wilken

Fun Fact about Me! The first job I ever had was working at the ice cream counter at a place called The Huddle on the Notre Dame campus.

Company Name & Years in Human Resources - Endunamo Consulting/too many to admit.

About Me Professionally - I am the President and CEO of Endunamo Consulting, an HR consulting company that serves the HR needs of nonprofits in Las Vegas and across Nevada. I am an attorney and have practiced employment and labor law but I found that I could make more of a positive impact as an HR professional and have been doing that for most of my career.

Years as a SHRM Member - 4 in Las Vegas; several before that in Minneapolis/St. Paul.

Years on a SHRM Board – 2

The Volunteer Roles I have held with SHRM or other organizations – College Relations

How I want to make a difference while on the SNV SHRM Board - Building a sense of community among HR professionals in Las Vegas and Nevada; helping college students to think about and prepare for careers in Human Resources.
