Dear SNVSHRM Member:

I am very excited to announce that my friend and colleagues Gary Moss will be presenting a workshop on Nevada Employment Law at LEAP 2016 – the Labor and Employment Law Advanced Practices Symposium March 16-18 at Bellagio in Las Vegas.

Gary is a Partner in the Las Vegas office of Jackson Lewis LLP, with more than 40 years' experience representing management in all areas of labor and employment law, including labor disputes, sexual harassment, and more. He has represented significant Las Vegas hotels and casinos, and Best Lawyers has named him Lawyer of the Year in Employment Law in Las Vegas.

In addition to his workshop, Gary will also be moderating a breakfast roundtable for Nevada employers Friday, March 18th. All told, LEAP 2016 features over 40 workshops, roundtables, and other invaluable sessions, including:

- Employment Law 2016: The Latest Developments
- The New Overtime Rules: Why HR Must Work Overtime to Ensure Compliance
- I-9 and E-Verify Compliance
- Inside the Mind of a Plaintiff's Attorney
- Employee Handbooks: Common Mistakes and Changes for 2016
- Retaliation: Why It's the EEOC's #1 Claim
- The Hiring Workshop
- ... and Many More!

The value of Gary's advice ALONE is staggering. Add in the 2+ days of sessions ... your 17 HRCI and SHRM credit hours ... and your free bonus gifts (see below), and the value of LEAP 2016 is almost beyond calculation.
